

AUDITION PACK

Audition Dates 17 and 18 May 2024

ABOUT CABARET: A NIGHT AT THE THEATRE

The concept for Musical Theatre Dunedin's cabaret series is a show created around the cast. We are looking for a cast of experienced performers including some youth. The rehearsal period is just over six weeks, starting 9 June 2024.

The audition is an audition with a difference, where the auditionee performs one or two songs that they have always wanted to sing from shows that Dunedin hasn't done or is unlikely to do. For successful auditionees, the Director will try to put at least one of their audition songs into the show and then shape the show by adding some more solos, duets/trios and some group numbers.

Performers can choose their level of commitment in terms of doing just their solo(s) or also say if they would like to be in duets/trios and group numbers (this will include some choreography). Successful cast will need to commit to the rehearsals that are scheduled for them, for tech rehearsals and for the performance season.

We are asking that there are no audition songs from Chicago, Les Miserables, Little Shop of Horrors, Jersey Boys, Moana, Wicked, Frozen, Legally Blonde, Lion King, Spring Awakening, Heathers: The Musical, Dusty: The Musical in Concert, Firebringer and Footloose.

Some examples of shows you could use are Sweeney Todd, Dogfight, Anastasia, Guys and Dolls, Book of Mormon, Dear Evan Hansen, Beautiful: The Carol King Musical, Once, Hadestown etc.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

- You must be aged over 8 years as of 1st August 2024 to be eligible to audition as youth. Please note that the youth cast will be small (3-5 people).
- All auditionees are expected to complete a vocal audition.
- Successful auditionees over the age of 16 years will be police vetted.
- While talent is the primary consideration when casting, a high level of commitment is essential. Our final choices for all roles will be made with this firmly in mind.
- By auditioning you agree and accept that all roles are cast on an UNPAID basis.
